

We've tried everything, Now What? - Dan Petro

Event Overview:

"We've tried everything, Now What?" with Dan Petro (1 day)

- Tuesday, 5 March: Horsham
- Thursday, 21 November: Warrnambool

This full-day class increases staff skills in developing a comprehensive approach to problem behaviours via the development of functional based interventions. Emphasis is placed on the utilisation of Applied Behaviour Analysis (ABA) as a means to not only identify the potential functions of problem behaviours, but more importantly develop replacement behaviours that meet the same function of those problem behaviours.

Who can participate?

This Professional Learning is designed to help support teachers to develop specific behaviour management strategies/ skills that can be used easily and effectively within the classroom.

What is expected of participants?

- Participants need to have a willingness to collaborate with colleagues and work with teams to bring about change.
- Participants are most likely to gain maximum benefit from the strategy if they bring these attitudes and behaviours to the process:
 - Be willing to reflect objectively on their current processes and behaviour management practices.
 - Demonstrate respect and empathy for others' views and feelings around issues shared during both small group discussions and in the wider forum, maintaining confidentiality at all times.

What is required of the Principal?

An essential requirement for participation is that Principals are able to:

- Provide time for participants to attend Professional Learning activities for 1 day.

What you can expect from the CEOB:

The CEOB will ensure that all facilitators will deliver a process and content that is in alignment with the overview and goals provided.

The CEOB will manage the costs associated with the provision of this strategy however schools will be asked to contribute the regular professional learning fee that is used to cover venue costs and catering as deemed necessary.

Registration:

Registration will be available online early in the 2019 school year. Registration implies that participants have the full support, as outlined, of their school principal.

Endorsement:

Leigh Mitchell
